Jurisdictional Demand for Immediate Release

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS AD SUBJICIENDUM

I, Gregory-Alan: Williams, a living man and Trustee for the Williams Family Estate™, do hereby demand this lawful Writ of Habeas Corpus ad subjiciendum for immediate production of lawful jurisdiction and verification of authority for any attempted detainment, process, or commercial coercion.

“Habeas Corpus” means “you shall have the body.” It is a foundational right secured by both State and Federal Constitutions, protecting against unlawful seizure, detention, or concealment of a living man under color of law.

AFFIRMATIONS

I am not the artificial legal entity known as GREGORY ALAN WILLIAMS.

I am a private living man, not a surety, agent, or representative of any corporate fiction.

I have not knowingly or voluntarily consented to any contract, policy, or statutory jurisdiction that would bind me as a debtor or as surety for a debtor.

No verified claim from a living, injured party has been received.

All alleged obligations have been lawfully tendered and discharged under:

- UCC §3-603 (NCGS §25-3-603)
- 31 USC §5118(d)(2)

The Williams Family Estate™ holds paramount equitable title over the DEBTOR, GREGORY ALAN WILLIAMS, which has no commercial capacity to obligate the man.

DEMAND FOR PROOF

- Immediate production of a valid contract or agreement bearing my living wet-ink signature;
- Verified claim by a living injured party under penalty of perjury;
- Full accounting of any CUSIP, bond, or commercial security issued under this case number;
- Lawful credentials and bond information of the agent acting to detain or compel performance.

WARNING OF LIABILITY

Be advised: Any refusal, delay, or failure to comply with this Writ and the lawful demands herein constitutes:

- A knowing and willful violation of the secured right to Habeas Corpus, protected under both the U.S. and State Constitutions;
- Deprivation of rights under color of law, punishable under 18 USC §242;
- An actionable civil rights offense under 42 USC §1983, subjecting the offending party to personal and official liability;

- A breach of fiduciary duty and public trust, enforceable against any bonded officer or agent acting outside the scope of lawful authority;

Such acts establish dishonor and subject the actor to commercial and lawful remedy in both equity and common law.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

- UCC §1-308 (NCGS §25-1-308)
- Habeas Corpus Clause – U.S. Constitution, Article I, Section 9
- North Carolina Constitution, Article I, Section 21
