Notice of Default

RE: Presentment dated July 25, 2025 — IRS Presentment Lacking Verified Claim

I, Gregory-Alan: Williams, Trustee of the Williams Family Estate™, a private irrevocable trust, do hereby give lawful notice as follows:

1. A lawful presentment including Affidavit of Status and Conditional Acceptance, Affidavit of Damage and Invoice, Declaration of Revocation of Election, and Exhibits A through C was sent to your office via USPS Certified Mail on July 25, 2025, and was received on August 4, 2025 at 7:56 AM, per USPS tracking #9214 7901 3247 3400 2239 1530 90.
2. A Notice of Fault and Final Opportunity to Cure was then executed on August 15, 2025 and mailed on August 16, 2025, granting a 3-day grace period to cure. That notice was published publicly at:
<https://williamsfamilyestate.org/notice/IRS-0004/>
3. That 3-day grace period expired on August 18, 2025, with no verified rebuttal, affidavit, or cure received from your office.
4. As of August 19, 2025, you stand in unrebutted commercial and equitable default. You have failed to respond or cure, and thus remain in dishonor.
5. The following instruments now stand as unrebutted truth in commerce and equity, now perfected as truth in the private under the law of contracts and equity:
 - Affidavit of Status and Conditional Acceptance
 - Affidavit of Damage and Invoice to Recover Damages

- Declaration of Revocation of Election
 - Notice of Fault and Opportunity to Cure
6. The Williams Family Estate™ reserves all lawful remedies now arising from your dishonor and shall proceed accordingly. Your silence is deemed acquiescence, and all unrebutted affidavits now stand as truth in commerce, nunc pro tunc, ab initio.

Affirmation

I affirm under full liability in equity and good conscience that the foregoing is true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge.
